Art Unit: 1754

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on May 8, 2007 has been entered.

In claim 18, it is suggested that – particles – be inserted after “powder” for clarity.

In claim 20, it is suggested that – particles have– be inserted in place of “has” in line 2 for clarity.

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 1, “the resulting solvent-free mixture” lack(s) proper antecedent basis in the claim(s).

In claim 7, “a barium titanate” is indefinite as to what this is referring to because there is only one barium titanate.

In claim 7, “the resulting solvent-free mixture” lack(s) proper antecedent basis in the claim(s).

In claim 7, "the resulting titanium oxide" lack(s) proper antecedent basis in the claim(s).

In claim 16, "a barium titanate" is indefinite as to what this is referring to because there is only one barium titanate.

The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Art Unit: 1754

Claims 16-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Callahan '773 or Malinofsky '116 or Sanchez '487.

Callahan and Malinofsky and Sanchez each suggest the instantly claimed process of forming a powder mixture of titanium dioxide powder and a barium compound, such as barium carbonate, powder and calcining the powder mixture to form barium titanate. See col. 1 and example 1 of Callahan; col. 1 and claim 1 of Malinofsky; and col. 1 of Sanchez. The taught powder mixture of titanium dioxide and barium compound would place at least some of the titanium dioxide powder particles in contact with the barium compound, i.e., on the surfaces of titanium dioxide powder particles, because each is approximately the same size as they have been ground together.

The subject matter as a whole would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to select the portion of the prior art's range which is within the range of applicant's claims because it has been held to be obvious to select a value in a known range by optimization for the best results, see In re Boesch, 205 USPQ 215.

Applicant's arguments filed May 8, 2007 have been fully considered and they are persuasive.
